

Going through a separation or divorce is already an emotionally-charged, financially taxing, and intricate legal process.

When children are involved, it adds another level of complexity that requires not only a delicate approach but the right legal finesse and knowledge to ensure the "best interest" of the minor.

Ward and Smith's family law attorneys are resolved to guide mothers, fathers, and guardians through difficult child custody disputes. Our goal for each client is to create a plan that protects your kids while addressing your concerns and future needs.

We're Here to Help

There are numerous issues that may need to be addressed in child custody cases. And for years, we've helped separated, or divorced parents and guardians develop an arrangement that suits their family. Our seasoned attorneys strive to settle matters pertaining to:

- Permanent Custody/Temporary Custody
- Third-Party Custodial Rights
- Visitation
- Child Support

When it comes to determining custody, having an experienced attorney can be the difference between getting the best outcome for your family. Contact our Family Law attorneys for the guidance and support you will need during this difficult time.

Reasons to Hire a Board Certified Attorney in Family Law

