Bio

Christopher serves as a strategic legal advisor to growing businesses. He assists emerging companies throughout their life cycle, from entity formation and early seed funding through late-stage financings, acquisitions and public offerings, and often serves as outside general counsel. He counsels them on their legal needs and on the business issues faced by growing companies. Christopher's goal is to simplify the complex legal issues companies face to help founders and business teams make sound decisions and achieve their goals.

Christopher also works with clients in all aspects of the entertainment industry, including film, television and multi-media projects.

Christopher received his B.A. from the University of Georgia and his J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law.
