

Meeghan Ramsey

Paralegal

Bio

Meeghan is a paralegal in our Commercial Litigation practice group. She has significant experience in all phases of complex business litigation in state and federal courts, including several lengthy trials. She has experience in a wide array of business litigation matters, as well as insurance coverage and employment law matters.

Meeghan received her B.A. in History from Wake Forest University and an M.A. in American History from the University of New Hampshire. She is a Certified Paralegal through the National Association of Legal Assistants (NALA). Prior to joining the firm, Meeghan worked for Young Moore and Henderson and Reed Smith.

Contact

mramsey@wyrick.com
919.228.2895

Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation

Professional & Community Activities

- North Carolina Bar, Paralegal Division
- National Association of Legal Assistants, Member
- Former Chapter Director, Women in E-Discovery (Raleigh-Durham Chapter)