

Wyrick Robbins Ranked in Chambers USA 2010 Guide

June 28, 2010

Wyrick Robbins has announced that it has been recognized as one of the leading law firms in North Carolina in the area of Corporate/M&A by the 2010 Chambers USA Guide, an annual publication that ranks the leading U.S. attorneys and law firms.

According to sources interviewed for the Chambers USA 2010 Guide, Wyrick Robbins “provide[s] superb corporate advice and a great work ethic at very reasonable fees.”

Wyrick Robbins partner Larry Robbins also received individual recognition in the category of “Leaders in Their Field” for Corporate/M&A. Larry says “it is an honor to be recognized by Chambers, and the acknowledgment Wyrick Robbins received is indicative of the firm-wide commitment to providing a nationally recognized level of excellence in legal services here in the Research Triangle.”

Chambers and Partners, publisher of Chambers USA, publishes directories annually, ranking law firms and individual attorneys throughout the world. Rankings are based on detailed interviews with thousands of clients and other attorneys. Chambers' independent and objective research has earned it an international reputation for publishing the most prestigious and trusted directories in the legal profession.

Related Attorneys

Larry E. Robbins
lrobbins@wyrick.com