
Young Moore Exhibits At North Carolina Medical Group Management Association Leadership Summit

NEWS | OCTOBER 1, 2015

Young Moore sponsored a booth at the North Carolina Medical Group Management Association Leadership Summit in Pinehurst. The exposition was attended by practice managers from across North Carolina and the companies and professionals that serve them. Young Moore represents physicians and their practices in matters involving medical malpractice, representation before the North Carolina Medical Board, HIPAA/HITECH and security issues, and general health care law. Young Moore attorneys also regularly advise health care providers and organizations, including physicians and physician practices, on business and commercial matters, asset protection and tax planning strategies.
