
Craddock Begins Three-Year Term on NCBA Workers' Compensation Section Council

NEWS | AUGUST 18, 2016

Angela Farag Craddock, a partner at Young Moore and Henderson, P.A., recently began a three-year term of service on the North Carolina Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Section Council. She was elected during the Workers' Compensation Section's Annual Meeting held on February 4-5 in Greensboro, North Carolina. Plaintiff and defense attorneys and the Industrial Commission are represented on the council and all perspectives are addressed in the section's newsletter. The section sponsors CLE programs and services; provides members with a substantive newsletter; and helps mold the NCBA's legislative agenda for presentation to the General Assembly.

In addition to her selection for the NCBA Workers' Compensation Section Council, Angela has been recognized as a Rising Star in workers' compensation by North Carolina Super Lawyers Magazine in 2014, 2015, and 2016. Angela's workers' compensation practice involves representation of employers and insurance companies in all stages of litigation before the North Carolina Industrial Commission and North Carolina Appellate Courts. She is a past recipient of the Westfield Golden Gavel Award in recognition of her outstanding achievement in appellate advocacy, and has an AV-Preeminent Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell.
