Gray and Raynor to Participate in ALFA's Insurance Law, Labor & Employment, and Professional Liability Conference

NEWS | JUNE 11, 2018

Young Moore attorneys Matthew J. Gray and Glenn C. Raynor are participating in ALFA's upcoming joint conference of the Insurance Law, Labor & Employment, and Professional Liability Practice Groups. The event will take place June 13-15, 2018 at The Wagner At The Battery Hotel in New York, NY. Matt serves as a co-chair of the conference and Glenn will be moderating a panel titled "Hot Topics in Bad Faith and UDTP Litigation."

Matt represents and advises insurers, healthcare facilities, corporations, and individuals. His practice includes complex insurance coverage analysis and counseling, bad faith litigation, employment counseling and litigation, long-term care claims, and administrative law. Matt represents his clients in the trial and appellate divisions of the state and federal courts throughout North Carolina.

Glenn focuses his practice on the management of complex insurance coverage, errors and omissions and bad faith litigation, and insurance regulatory and ratemaking matters. He has handled a number of insurance coverage cases of first impression. He also represents the North Carolina Rate Bureau in ratemaking litigation and in litigation involving the Rate Bureau.

About ALFA International

ALFA International is the premier network of independent law firms. Founded in 1980, ALFA is the first and continues to be one of the largest and strongest legal networks. We have 150 member firms throughout the world. Our 80 U.S. firms represent 95 of the 100 largest metropolitan areas. Our 70 international firms are located throughout Europe, Asia, Australia/New Zealand, Africa, Canada, Mexico and South America.

ALFA International's mission is to provide high quality, cost efficient legal services wherever our clients need them. The ALFA model enables our members to use their local expertise to deliver highly effective legal solutions, often drawing upon the collective wisdom and experience of other member firms. ALFA clients benefit from a geographically comprehensive network of exceptional law firms and accomplished trial and business counsel. Our member firms meet high standards to be part of the ALFA network and are well respected by their peers in the legal and business community.
