Health Care Industry Group Donates Flowers to Cancer Patient Survivor's Clinic

NEWS | FEBRUARY 8, 2016

The Young Moore and Henderson Health Care Industry Group donated several arrangements of roses and sunflowers to a local cancer patient survivor's clinic for Valentine's day. The team is pleased to help brighten the lives of cancer survivors through this gift of beauty.

Young Moore attorneys on the health care team are proud to work with hospitals, long term care facilities, and medical device and equipment companies throughout North Carolina. To learn how members of our health care industry group can serve you, please click here.
