THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF
TRUST AND ESTATE COUNSEL

Young Moore attorney, John N. Hutson, Jr., recently presented to the Asset Protection Committee at the Annual Meeting of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) on the efficacy of using tenancy by the entirety as an asset protection device. The event was held in San Diego, California on March 9-13, 2022.

John is an elected Fellow of ACTEC and has more than forty years of litigation experience. He focuses his practice on helping individuals and families who need his experience to navigate estate, trust or guardianship issues. He also works with businesses in evaluating contracts and handling commercial disputes. He is recognized in The Best Lawyers in America®, North Carolina Super Lawyers®, and Business North Carolina's Legal Elite.

About ACTEC

The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) is a nonprofit association of lawyers and law professors skilled and experienced in the preparation of wills and trusts; estate planning; and probate procedure and administration of trusts and estates of decedents, minors and incompetents. Lawyers and law professors are elected to be Fellows based on their outstanding reputation, exceptional skill, and substantial contributions to the field by lecturing, writing, teaching and participating in bar activities. It is their aim to improve and reform probate, trust and tax laws, procedures, and professional responsibility.
