
McCullen to Volunteer at First Responder Event in New Bern, NC

NEWS | MARCH 20, 2017

Young Moore attorney, Chadwick I. McCullen, will be among several other volunteers at the upcoming Wills for Heroes' event in New Bern on April 1, 2017 at Craven Community College. The program is offered by the Young Lawyers Division of the North Carolina Bar Association and provides free essential estate planning documents including wills and powers of attorney to first responders including police officers, firefighters, and emergency medical technicians (EMTs) and their spouses.

Chad is a Shareholder at Young Moore and serves as Co-Chair of the North Carolina Bar Association 'Wills for Heroes' Committee. He is a Board Certified Specialist in Estate Planning and Probate Law and concentrates his practice in the areas of estate planning and administration, asset protection, business law, and commercial real estate matters.

To register for this event, please contact Chad at CIM@youngmoorelaw.com or 919-861-5503.
