Young Moore attorney, Christopher A. Page, is serving as Program Chair of the upcoming 2022 ALFA International Client Seminar: The Art of Storytelling. Attendees will be enlightened and entertained by some of the world's finest attorneys and storytellers as presenters explore the techniques, intuitive art, and ethics related to the opening and closing of a client's story during a jury trial. The event is scheduled for March 3rd – March 6th at the beautiful Lost Pines Resort in Cedar Creek, Texas. Registration is open to members of ALFA International and their invited guests.

Chris is a shareholder at Young Moore and an experienced trial attorney specializing in the representation of clients in the hospitality and retail industries. He represents several national clients with all of their legal needs, including claims relating to employment, business disputes, trademark infringement, false advertising, premises accidents, and construction defects. After graduating summa cum laude from Duke University, Chris earned his law degree from the Yale Law School. Chris is a frequent speaker at ALFAI events and has created many presentations on a variety of litigation and management topics. Within ALFAI, he is a former member of its Board of Directors, Chairman Emeritus of its Hospitality and Retail Law Practice Group, and a Past Chair of the organization's Marketing Committee. He was also selected in 2017 as ALFAI's Attorney of the Year.

ALFA International is a global network of independent law firms. It is comprised of 150 outstanding member firms, 80 in the United States, and 70 across Canada, Mexico, Latin America, Europe, Asia, Australia, and Africa. ALFAI's mission is to provide clients with high-quality, cost-efficient legal services worldwide. The ALFAI model enables its members to use local expertise to deliver highly effective legal solutions, while drawing upon the collective wisdom and experience of other member firms when necessary. Member firms meet high standards to be part of the ALFAI network and are well respected by their peers in the legal and business community.
