
Trott Named to North Carolina Tennis Hall of Fame

NEWS | SEPTEMBER 19, 2016

Young Moore and Henderson, P.A. is proud to announce that firm attorney and United States Tennis Association (USTA) North Carolina President, William “Billy” Trott, has been named to the North Carolina Tennis Hall of Fame. During Bill’s tennis career, he lettered three times on ACC champion teams, coached freshman/JV tennis teams while in law school, and has been state doubles champion in several age divisions. Since the late 1980’s and early 1990’s, he has been a crucial member of both USTA North Carolina and the North Carolina Tennis Foundation serving in numerous leadership positions and providing legal guidance. The NC Hall of Fame induction for the class of 2017 will take place at USTA North Carolina’s Tennis Weekend held in Pinehurst, NC, on January 28, 2017.

Billy is a partner at Young Moore where he practices both employment law and insurance law. He represents clients in a wide range of employment matters including lawsuits in state and federal courts and advises and represents insurance organizations and companies on regulatory matters, including compliance with laws and hearings and appeals before the North Carolina Insurance Department. Bill has an AV Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell.
