Young Moore Sponsors 75th Annual IAIP Convention

NEWS | JUNE 21, 2016

Young Moore is proud to have sponsored the 75th annual International Association of Insurance Professionals (IAIP) convention June 16-18th in Richmond, Virginia. Firm attorney Brian O. Beverly attended the event along with insurance professionals across the country who gathered to share knowledge, ideas, and experiences. Brian focuses his practice on the defense of transportation liability claims involving large commercial vehicles, insurance coverage litigation, insurance bad faith and extra-contractual litigation, and medical negligence cases. Glenn focuses his practice on the management of complex insurance coverage, errors and omissions and bad faith litigation, and the representation of medical professionals before their licensing boards and insurance regulatory and ratemaking matters.
