

Young Moore Proudly Sponsors the Me Fine Emerald Anniversary Gala

NEWS | SEPTEMBER 27, 2024

Young Moore is honored to sponsor the Me Fine Emerald Anniversary Gala on October 18th at the American Tobacco Campus in Durham. This special event marks the Me Fine Foundation's 20th year of supporting families with children undergoing treatment at Duke, UNC, and WakeMed hospitals. Guests will enjoy live and silent auctions, catering by the Angus Barn, and a lively dance party hosted by DJ Rang.

The Me Fine Foundation, founded in 2004, provides hope by offering emotional support and financial assistance to families whose children are receiving care at North Carolina's partner hospitals. Guided by the principle that Families

Come First, Me Fine is committed to preserving family dignity, privacy, and self-determination, using this mission to shape all of its operational decisions.

The foundation was named in memory of Folden Lee IV, a courageous two-year-old boy diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia in May 2003. Despite the challenges of chemotherapy, Folden would always respond with “Me Fine” when asked how he was feeling. In September 2004, after a brave battle, Folden passed away at just two years old. His spirit continues to inspire Me Fine’s mission. Read more
