Young Moore is proud to sponsor Alliance Medical Ministry's Healthy Start Breakfast program. This virtual event is a 30-minute program with an important message on our community's health and the impact of COVID-19. Honorary Chair of the program is Donald Gintzig, President and CEO of WakeMed Health & Hospitals. Keynote Speaker is Rhett Mabry, President of The Duke Endowment.

The virtual event will be accessible via link on the Alliance Medical Ministry website on Thursday, September 24 at noon. To receive event updates please send a request to development@alliancemedicalministry.org.

Firm attorney, Elizabeth P. McCullough, serves on the Board of Directors of Alliance Medical Ministry. Elizabeth is a shareholder at Young Moore where she serves as a member of the Practice Management Committee, leader of the Health Care Industry Group, and as a member of the COVID-19 Task Force. She focuses her practice on advising and defending health care providers in matters involving patient care issues and risk management.
