NEWS | SEPTEMBER 28, 2021

Emily D. Mattern

Sydney C. Plummer

Young Moore is pleased to welcome Emily D. Mattern and Sydney C. Plummer to the firm. Emily and Sydney are both 2021 graduates of the University of North Carolina School of Law and have previously completed a summer clerkship at Young Moore.

Emily focuses her practice on estate planning and administration, asset protection, and business transactions. Before pursuing a law degree, Emily worked as a paralegal where she gained experience assisting attorneys with the delivery of legal services. While attending law school, she completed an internship at the Wake County Attorney's Office and served as a staff member of the North Carolina Law Review and as Treasurer of the Hispanic/Latino Law Students' Association. Emily is a native of Long Island, New York and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies and a minor in Pre-law.

Sydney focuses her practice on civil litigation, insurance law, and insurance regulatory matters. While earning her law degree, she served as Senior Staff Editor of the North Carolina Journal of International Law and as a member of the Holderness Moot Court Negotiations Team and UNC Innocence Project. She also served as a summer intern at the Wake County Attorney's Office and as a legal extern for The Honorable David S. Cayer, United States Magistrate Judge. Sydney is a native of Thomasville, NC and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and History and a minor in Education.
