
Young Moore Welcomes Wes Tripp

NEWS | OCTOBER 26, 2021

Samuel W. (Wes) Tripp, III

Young Moore is pleased to welcome Samuel W. (Wes) Tripp, III to the firm. Wes is an associate and focuses his practice on estate and fiduciary litigation as well as occupational licensing boards and administrative law. He also participates as a pro bono attorney in the North Carolina Guardian ad Litem Program, where he advocates for abused and neglected children in cases that have been appealed to North Carolina's appellate courts.

Before returning to the Triangle and joining Young Moore, Wes worked for a law firm in Asheville, NC where he represented a wide variety of clients, from individuals to businesses, in matters involving appellate advocacy, bankruptcy and creditors' rights, landlord/tenant disputes, medical malpractice defense, professional liability, and general insurance defense.

After graduating from Campbell University School of Law, Wes served as a law clerk for the Supreme Court of North Carolina as well as the North Carolina Court of Appeals, during which time, he had the opportunity to help draft nearly 50 appellate opinions. He is a cum laude graduate of the University of Tennessee with a bachelor's degree in history and a magna cum laude graduate of Johnson University earning an associate's degree in religious studies.
