Mickey.Spivey@youngmoorelaw.com

For more than 30 years, Mickey Spivey’s practice with Young Moore and Henderson has been in insurance law and regulation, and in business and commercial matters.

Through long-time representation of the North Carolina Rate Bureau and the North Carolina Reinsurance Facility, he has extensive experience in setting rates and loss costs and promulgating policy forms and rating manuals, as well as in the general operations of the voluntary and residual markets, for automobile, residential property and workers’ compensation insurance in North Carolina. Mickey also has significant experience with the general representation of both a life and health insurance company and a property casualty insurance company.

Mickey works with business owners, assisting them with the selection and organization of the business entity, arrangements between the owners, purchase and sale of businesses and professional practices, purchase and leasing of real estate, and resolution of problems and disputes.

Mickey has been with Young Moore and Henderson since 1986, and he serves the firm in a number of management roles. He was named the Best Lawyers® 2021 Insurance Law “Lawyer of the Year” in the Raleigh area and has an AV Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell. Mickey is an avid fan of Tarheel sports.
